7th February 2009

How surprising ! Two young men oddly equipped and motorized knocking on our door !

How nice ! We welcomed two tired and hungry sportsmen, feed them and give them a bed.

How interesting ! We listened to them, explaining us all about their « machines » and their epic trek !

How sad ! We watched those two friendly and courageous boys leave the next morning for other horizons !

Since then, they have never missed to write us notes, giving us some news !

How moving ! We read and follow their adventure with great interest.

Please welcome Pierre-Jean and Xavier warmly wherever they choose to stop. They deserve it and you will not be disappointed. You will see, meeting them is a blessing....

From the bottom of our hearts, we join them in their projects and wish them good luck.
